Mt. Hood National Forest: Draft Decision Notice for Environmental Assessment. The Mt. Hood National Forest, Barlow Ranger District has prepared a draft decision notice and finding of no significant impact (draft DN/FONSI) and a final environmental assessment (EA) for the Dog River Pipeline Replacement project. These documents are available on the Mt. Hood National Forest website at: <https://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=34721>. The Responsible Official is Richard Periman, Forest Supervisor. This draft DN/FONSI is subject to objection pursuant to Forest Service regulations at 36 CFR 218. Only individuals or organizations that submitted specific, written comments during a designated opportunity for public participation may object (36 CFR 218.5). Notices of objection must meet the requirements of 36 CFR 218.8. Objections must be filed with the Objection Reviewing Officer within 45 days from the date of the publication of this notice of opportunity to object. This publication date is the exclusive means for calculating the time to file an objection. The Objection Reviewing Officer is the Regional Forester. An objection should be addressed to the Regional Forester at the following address. For postal delivery, mail to: Objection Reviewing Officer; Pacific Northwest Regional Office; Attn: 1570 Objections; PO Box 3623; Portland OR 97208-3623. Objections sent by U.S. Postal Service or other private carrier must be post-marked or date stamped before the close of the objection period and must be received before the close of the fifth business day after the objection filing period. For FedEx or UPS deliveries, mail to: Objection Reviewing Officer; Pacific Northwest Regional Office; Attn: 1570 Objections; 1220 SW Third Avenue; Portland OR 97204. Hand deliveries are not accepted at this time, as offices are currently closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. For e-mailed objections, send to: objections-pnw-regional-office@usda.gov. Please put "Dog River Pipeline Replacement" in the subject line of the e-mail. Electronic objections must be submitted as part of an actual e-mail message, or as an attachment in Microsoft Word format (.doc), rich text format (.rtf) or portable document format (.pdf) only. E-mails submitted to e-mail addresses other than the one listed above, or in formats other than those listed, or containing viruses, will be rejected. It is the responsibility of the objector to confirm receipt of objections submitted by electronic mail. For e-mailed objections, the sender should receive an automated electronic acknowledgement from the agency as confirmation of receipt. If the sender does not receive an automated acknowledgement of receipt, it is the sender's responsibility to ensure timely receipt by other means. For further information, contact Ashley Popham, Planner, at ashley.popham@usda.gov. The U.S. Department of Agriculture is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
